A Tale of Two Counties

As Told by the Times' Correspondents in Neosho and Wilson Counties.

To CORRESPONDENTS:—Write on but one side of the paper; head your items each week with the name of your locality; get items here by Tuesday when possible, but in no case later than Wednesday; sign your name to items, not to be used in paper, but as a matter of good faith; when your supplies run out, notify this office.

Erie.

L. Stillwell is holding court in Fredonia.

Mrs. Estella Cooper, of Hillsboro, Ill., is visiting her father, A. P. Allen in this city.

The Katy trains were delayed several hours Monday and Tuesday on account of a washout on the Maries des Cygnes.

Miss Anna Prange left last week for a short visit with friends in Wilson county.

Prof. C. A. Lewis, of St. Paul, was in this city Monday doing some diploma work.

Owing to the fact that another course has been added to the High school in this city, there will be no graduating class or commencement exercises, but those finishing the course completed by those who have heretofore graduated, will be given diplomas to that effect.

Two coach loads of the boys of Erie and surrounding country went to Parsons Saturday to be examined relative to entering the U. S. military service. Sixteen from this city passed a successful examination and left yesterday for Topeka to be mustered in. About twelve hundred people, waving Old Glory and the Cuban flag gathered at the depot to bid them good bye. The following is a list of those who went from this city: Edward Berry, Tillman Bixby, Jay C. Wells, Joseph C. Herod, Conrad E. Welsch, David F. Pittser, Willis M. Short, Albertus A. Priest, Tony K. Welch, Chas. W. Shewalter, Hubert Stillwell, Thos. P. Reynolds, Sam B. Spoonmore, James B. Hardman, Logan H. Wells and James Knight. Jas. Knight and Logan Wells were elected first and second lieutenants respectively of the company formed in this and Labette counties.

J. L. Denison was transacting business in federal court at Fort Scott Tuesday.

The dead body of a man named Mullaney, of Humboldt, was found in the river near Shaw Monday. The county attorney and coroner were summoned. It is alleged that Mullaney committed suicide by jumping off the bridge at Humboldt.

Earlton.

Wednesday, May 4, '98.—Dr. Jones is kept so busy that he can't go to see his girl. I tell you Doc, there is a party in "Ireland" that will relieve you of some of your duties if you will give him a chance.

Prof. Walker's brother has been visiting him for a week. His brother hails from Indiana.

Will Ames shipped two car loads of fat cattle on Monday. These cattle were Mr. Ames' own feeding.

Chas. Dittmars was kicked by a horse a few days ago while riding another horse through the pasture.

Elder McHugh has been engaged to preach the memorial sermon, this year. A good selection has been made.

Two of our high spirited citizens had a discussion on freedom, last Monday; not free Cuba, but free silver. The discussion became animated and almost ended in blows.

J. A. Alleman has bought out Henry Ocker's hardware and will add the same to his already extensive stock of general merchandise. Henry Ocker retires from business.

Earlton is making a substantial advancement in the line of business. Our merchants are doing 50 per cent more business than a year ago. There is more grain and stock shipped from here than ever before and many of our citizens are making improvements on resident property that shows confidence in our present condition.

Shaw.

Thursday, May 5.—J. P. Allen, who has been under the weather for some time, is about again.

Frank Serery, who works on the extra gang, had his wrist badly sprained yesterday while coming in on the hand car. He will be laid up for some time.

The river is out over the bottoms and lots of wheat and oats will be ruined. The levees are still holding and the water is at a standstill.

F. M. Hill, Marion Evans, and Russell Perry went to Chanute on business today.

W. H. Nation spends most of his time in town of late conferring with J. C. Colaw, W. F. Glessman, John McConnell, Frank Hill and other statesmen on the best mode of conquering Spain without war. We would suggest that this gang go over and talk them to death.

John C. Guss and George Cunningham were at Erie Wednesday on court business; we presume Bro. Cunningham out courted Bro. Guss as the latter came home at noon and the former stayed till the afternoon train.

George Cunningham who, some time ago, purchased the Eckley stock of goods, has added a nice line of shoes, dry goods and notions, and has stocked up in the grocery line, until now he has a very fine stock of goods. His trade is increasing noticeably. Mr. Cunningham is a fine business man, is courteous and obliging and will no doubt, succeed in building up an excellent trade at this point.

The ladies wonder how Mrs. B. manages to preserve her youthful looks. The secret is she takes Prickly Ash Bitters. It keeps her system in perfect order. For further particulars call on J. L. Sewell.

Leanna.

Tuesday, May 3.—Another rain and farmers are out of the fields again.

John List helped in the mill Friday. H. S. Joyce is working for F. Y. Snodgrass.

Jas. Reed visited his parents at this place Sunday.

Frank Haymaker and son Ray went to Chanute Saturday.

Dr. John Courtney has been quite indisposed for a few days.

W. A. Alford was transacting business near Chanute a few days last week.

Rosa Steolzing, of Rollin, is staying with her sister, Mrs. Fred Burghart.

Miss Winnie Haymaker returned Wednesday from her visit in Savonburg.

Ed Kelly and wife visited Mr. and Mrs. Scantling Saturday night and Sunday.

Charley and Jim Huss attended an exhibition at the Skyrocket school house last night.

J. W. Roberts one of Leanna's rustling farmers marketed another load of fat hogs yesterday.

Mrs. Fred Burghart and Bertha Reed attended the last day of school at North Valley Friday. They report a good time.

H. A. Richardson of Savonburg will make the drive with his huckster through this neighborhood, on Thursday of each week.

Amos Reed is the proud possessor of a box of the regular old fashioned

Kentucky tobacco, sent him by his brother in Kentucky.

We are glad to report Miss Vinnie Reed much improved from her recent illness.

Dr. Courtney is having his house repainted. Jas. Tutor, of Chanute is doing the work.

Dosha, Zelda, Edna, and Mattie Alford visited relatives near Odense Thursday of last week.

Prickly Ash Bitters cures the kidneys, regulates the liver, tones up the stomach and purifies the bowels. Sold by J. L. Sewell.

Odense.

Tuesday, May 3, '98.—War, war, is all the talk.

The web worms are eating the apple trees and killing the blooms.

Mrs. John Todd and Mrs. L. D. Crapson spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Trammell and Mrs. Edwards.

George Crapson, of Erie, spent Sunday with L. D. Crapson and family.

John Todd and wife spent Sunday with Mr. Crapson and family.

Rev. Floyd will preach at the Odense Baptist church, Sunday and Sunday night. All invited.

Dr. Dehart came home from Erie Saturday evening and returned Monday.

Dow Crapson put 11 head of calves in L. T. Smith's pasture, Monday.

Miss Mary Dehart was on the sick list this week.

Isaac and Florence Smith, of Kimball, were visiting Mrs. Crapson Sunday.

The Odense Baptist home-workers are going to weave a carpet for Mrs. Charley McGuffey.

Neosho Valley.

Wednesday, May 4, '98.—Rain, rain, rain.

Most of the valley land is under water.

Elmer Locke commenced to haul J. F. Brinegar's and J. E. George's milk, the first of the week.

Mr. Thurman has a great many visitors, people coming quite a distance to see the high water.

Nels Nelson has finished putting up fence around his prairie, which he intends to have for pasture.

Messrs. George and Johnson have been spraying their apple trees, while it has been too rainy to work.

Our Swede Center correspondent says listen for wedding bells. But we surmise it is the correspondent himself.

Thayer.

Wednesday, May 4.—We observed Prof. J. S. O'Connor, of Earlton in town Tuesday night. He was visiting with his old schoolmate, Prof. W. A. Cook.

Last Monday night was a rousing old time for Thayer. The boys got out the anvils and celebrated the American naval victory in great shape.

W. H. Powell, of Chanute, was a Thayer visitor the latter part of last week.

Thayer will have two representatives in the Kansas volunteers, viz: Geo. C. Lowrance and Chas. McNulty. They enlisted at Independence and will leave for Topeka Thursday night.

John Winters has accepted a position on the section and has begun work.

Will Lyman is working for his father now since John Winters, his former hand has commenced work on the section.

Sam'l. Brewster went to Chanute Tuesday night.

The regular communication of Thayer Lodge No. 49 A. F. & A. M. will be held next Saturday night. Work in the 2nd degree.

The heavy rains of the past few days has completely stopped farm work.

Austin.

Tuesday, May 3, '98.—Too much water to go out to hunt up items without a boat and as there is no boat at hand, will have to jot down passing events. There are but few people passing and they look wet and forlorn.

Turkey creek is not fordable. People have to go to the west ford to cross the creek to get to town.

Andy McFarlan went to Chanute today.

Mrs. Anna Micheal and her brother, Bert Winans, went to Chanute today. L. Scribner, his son Bert and wife, were at Austin, today.

Wm. Pullen moved into the house recently occupied by Dude Durrall on Mrs. Kirkpatrick's farm.

If business does not go on swimmingly, it is not for the want of water. Flax is up and so is the river.

A good time for ducks, but hard on chickens.

A Lady that buys

materials for her spring suit or summer dress from us will be satisfied.

The Boy that Gets

one of our Junior Suits (3 to 7 years) will be in a continual state of delight. This will only be surpassed by the mother's satisfaction that there is a place where she can clothe her boy in the very newest garment made. Call for our Junior Vestee Suits.
